NOTES AND ORDERS.

The last representation of M^r D. Srinivasa Rao was received in Feb. last, in reply to which he was informed (vide Secy's D.O. no 95181 of 5.4.10) that his case would not be taken into serious consideration unless and until he qualified him-

4 He requests, on the strength of the Govt. Order of 13th Dec 02, that his appointment as Asst. Comr may be ordered with effect from 15th Nov 06, and that his promotion to the next higher (4th) grade may be sanctioned from 15th Nov 09, under the Standing Orders regulating these promotions. The Survey Supdt submits a recommendation for sanction to Mr Sreenivasa Rau's request.

5. The question of Mr Sreenivasa Rau's promotion had come up more than once before Govt, as observed in the previous files. But by ~~accordance with~~ the Govt Order of 31st July 07, which is the latest Offl order on the subject, Mr Sreenivasa Rau's pay was raised to Rs 250/- with effect from 15th Nov 06 "having regard to the promise made to him in the G.O. of 13th Dec 02," and the question of his admission to the Civil Service was reserved for consideration when he should pass the prescribed Examinations.

6 Now the question for Consideration is, from what date he is to be appted an Asst Comr. From the tenor of the previous correspondence and orders, in that the appt should, it seems, be ordered with effect from 15th Nov 06.* If this is sanctioned his promotion to the 4th grade has to be sanctioned from 15th Nov 09, and his rank in the Civil List

These papers relate to an application from Mr. D. Srinivasa Rao, Sub Assistant Superintendent of Revenue Survey, praying that he may be appointed an Assistant Commissioner.

R I 17

2. In Government Proceedings No.R.2679-81 dated 13th December 1902 Mr. Srinivasa Rao was appointed Sub Assistant Superintendent of Revenue Survey from the 15th November 1901 on a pay of Rs.125 rising to Rs.150 after one year. At the same time he was informed that he would be given a further increase of Rs.50 after 2 years more, and that "if he continued to give satisfaction in the discharge of his duties he may be given a pay of Rs.250 after a further period of 2 years and classed with Extra Assistant Commissioners". His pay was accordingly raised to Rs.150 from the 15th November 1902 and to Rs.200 from the 15th November 1904, but before the expiry of the further period of 2 years when he could get a pay of Rs.250 and be classed with Extra Assistant Commissioners, the new Civil Service Rules of June 1906 came into operation under which the grade of Extra Assistant Commissioner was abolished and the question of including the members of the Extra Assistant Commissioner's grade in the Mysore Civil Service was reserved for separate orders. Orders on this question were passed in Government Proceedings No.6027-99 dated the 2nd April 1907, under which all Extra Assistant Commissioners and officers in parallel grades who were already borne on the permanent strength in these grades were admitted into the Mysore Civil Service irrespective of the Local Service tests they might have passed.

3. Mr. D. Srinivasa Rao should have, according to the promise made to him in December 1902, been made an Extra Assistant Commissioner from 15th November 1906 or 4 months before the Government Proceedings of April 1907 just referred to. He therefore prayed that he might be admitted into the Mysore Civil Service with effect from the 15th November 1906. This application was considered at some length in 1907 (vide papers ending with His Highness' orders dated 13th February 1907 and 20th July 1907), with the result that Mr. Srinivasa Rao's pay was raised to Rs.250 with effect from the 15th November 1906, and he was informed informed that the question of his admission to the Civil Service would be considered when he had passed all the departmental tests prescribed for Assistant Commissioners.

4. Mr. Srinivasa Rao completed his tests in May last, and has now applied to be admitted to the Mysore Civil Service with effect from the 15th November 1906, so as to entitle him to be promoted to the 4th class of Assistant Commissioners with effect from the 15th November 1909. It is remarked in the Officiating Secretary's note dated the 23rd July that this would amount to fulfilling the promise made to him in 1902, and that another course would be to admit him into the Mysore Civil Service with effect from the date (in May 1910) when he appeared for the last of the Local Service Examinations which he had to pass. If this is done he would, under the proviso to Para XI of the Civil Service Rules of June 1907, be at once entitled to a pay of Rs.300.

5. The application has been considered in Council, and the Council is of opinion that Mr. Srinivasa Rao may be appointed an Assistant Commissioner, Schedule B, with effect from the date of sanction. This may be approved.

6. The general question of nominations to the Civil Service is usually taken up at this time of the year, and the necessary notes regarding vacancies, eligible candidates &c., will be submitted for orders shortly. Mr. D. Srinivasa Rao will have to take his chance in competition with the claims of other candidates.

The confirmation of Mr.D.Sreenivasa Rao is the fulfilment of an explicit promise made to him in 1902 and I do not think that he ought to be left to take his chance in competition with the other candidates for admission to the higher grades of the public service.

He may be confirmed as Assistant Commissioner with effect from the date in July 1910 when the results of the last examination which he had to pass were published.
